WHETHER UP-AND-COMING OR WELL ESTABLISHED, EACH OF THESE TALENTED DESIGNERS SAW THE HOMES AT ESCALA AS A RARE CHANCE TO EXPLORE AND EXPAND THE DEFINITION OF SEATTLE STYLE. BY PARTNERING WITH GENEROUS, FLEXIBLE AND LIKE-MINDED VENDORS, EACH HAD ACCESS TO THE VERY LATEST FURNISHINGS AND MATERIALS. THIS MADE IT POSSIBLE FOR THEM TO CREATE LUXURIOUS AND ECLECTIC HOMES THAT ARE DREAMLIKE AND FANTASTIC BUT ALSO INFINITELY INHABITABLE. STEP INTO THEIR SPACES AND YOU'LL FEEL THE PULSE OF A WORLD-CLASS CITY.

DIXIE STARK DA STARK INTERIORS

Dixie founded DA STARK Interiors with the mission of providing her unique approach to interior design to the discerning client, while providing personal attention and her unique Southern eye to a Pacific Northwest canvas. Dixie creates spaces that are a true reflection of the client thru beautifully selected and carefully edited materials. The firm has clients from New York/New England, Palm Springs, Houston, Dallas and Washington DC.

Artist Vision

Having worked with clients before who are downsizing, or managing a second residence; I know the challenges behind creating a new urban lifestyle. I wanted to show just how beautiful, functional and comfortable these spaces could become once transformed with the right vision. I focused on melding the collections of the past with the fresh new architecture to create a truly urban luxury residence.

Preferred Partners

Dixie Stark Home, Harold's Lighting, Lawrence & Scott Inc., LiT Shades, New Dimensions, Pande Cameron, Polly McArthur and Associates, Solar Shading Systems, Table Top & Home, The Dixon Group, Trammell-Gagne, Vision Art, Wayne Martin, Inc.

“Blending old with new in an urban luxury residence shows just how beautiful, functional and comfortable urban spaces can be.”
